

fcc , this is in regards to the proposed lpfm radio switch over in my area. k-love radio is an asset to my community as it is the only christian radio around . so i feel that it's not fair to switch it . switch some other of the many secular stations . there is a few to choose from .i feel k-love offers a positive influence that most other stations don't provide to the community .thanks mark franz